

Last week Guardtime Tallinn office wPresident14as visited by President of Estonia, Mr Toomas Hendrik Ilves.

Gustav Poola, Head of Guardtime Estonia gave Mr President a tour in the office where he met with our people. "It's clear who really runs things around here," was Mr President's comment towards our developer Antti Asi, who had decided to sport a bow tie for the occasion. Smart move, Antti!

Later Mr President was briefed about the Guardtime's latest developments and held a session with our CEO Mike Gault and CTO Matthew Johnson about the data integrity in cyberspace and Guardtime's KSI technology applications in detecting and mitigating security breaches as well as in protecting user privacy in Internet.

Thank you for taking the time to visit us, Mr President! It was a great boost to our entire team and we hope you see you again soon!
