President Toomas Hendrik Ilves met today in Ljubljana with Janez Janša, the current opposition leader, who has been Slovenia's Prime Minister on two former occasions. Last night, the Head of State discussed the constitutional differences of the two countries and legal foundations of the European Union in general with the President of Constitutional Court, Ernest Petrič.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229