

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves met today in Kadriorg with the Prime Minister of Slovenia, Miro Cerar, who is currently on a two-day visit to Estonia.

The meeting focused on relations between the European Union and Russia and the situation in Ukraine. "The European Union must maintain a united and determined approach to control the aggressors and their supporters," told the Estonian Head of State.

Prime Minister Cerar and President Ilves both admitted that solidarity in the European Union should also mean compliance with the rules by all the member states.

President Ilves confirmed that Estonia welcomes Slovenia to join the NATO's Co-operative Cyber Defence Centre of Excellence in Tallinn and is willing to share its experiences in the IT sphere.
