

"I was devastated by the news of the terrorist attack that claimed the lives of dozens and dozens of people in the capital of Turkey, an important ally of Estonia. I extend my deepest condolences to the next of kin of the deceased and the people of Turkey in general," stated President Toomas Hendrik Ilves in his letter of condolences to the Head of State of Turkey, Recep Tayyip Erdoğan.

Today's terror attacks in Ankara railway station killed at least 86 people and injured approximately 200.
