

The Young Scientist Award is a prize awarded to a young scientist aged 35 or younger who is conducting research at an Estonian or foreign college, university or research institution. Candidates must already have completed their doctorate. The prize is 5,000 euros, which is donated by Väino Kaldoja.

Nominations must comprise a written application, including personal details and curriculum vitae (name, address, e-mail address, telephone, education, professional record); a description of the research being conducted; a list of published research work relevant to the research in question; and at least two references from tutors or teachers.

Nominations may be submitted by the IT young scientists themselves or by their tutors or employers, professional association, universities, or by members of the Board of the Cultural Foundation.

All of the documents related to nominations for the award must be submitted to the Cultural Foundation at the postal address of the Office of the President of the Republic, Weizenbergi 39, 15050 Tallinn, or, signed digitally, to the following e-mail address vpinfo@vpk.ee.

Nominations for the award can be submitted up to 5 December 2015 (incl. the date on the postage stamp).
