

The President of the Republic accepted credentials from three ambassadors

Tuesday, 02 September 2008 18:07

Today in Kadriorg, President Toomas Hendrik Ilves met with the Ambassadors from Sweden, the Republic of South Africa and Malaysia, who presented their credentials to the Head of State.

Credentials were presented by Jan Palmstierna, the Ambassador from the Kingdom of Sweden, who resides in Tallinn; Lyttelton Mncedisi Sobizana Mngqikana, the Ambassador of the Republic of South Africa, who resides in Helsinki; and Dato Kamarudin bin Mustafa, the Ambassador of the Federation of Malaysia, who resides in Stockholm.

At the meetings with the Ambassadors, their countries relations with Estonia, as well as foreign policy developments in general were discussed.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229