

Yesterday in Kadriorg, President Toomas Hendrik Ilves met with the Ambassadors of Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bangladesh and Canada, who presented their credentials to the Head of State.

Credentials were presented by Vera Mavrić, the Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia, who resides in Helsinki; Darko Zelenika, the Ambassador of Bosnia-Herzegovina, who resides in Stockholm; Mohamed Mijarul Quayes, the Ambassador of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, who resides in Moscow; and Scott Heatherington, the Ambassador of Canada, who resides in Riga.

Vabariigi Presidendi Kantselei
avalike suhete osakond
tel 631 6229