

“I am shocked and express my profound sympathy to the German people,” President Toomas Hendrik Ilves wrote today in his message of condolence to Federal President Horst Köhler of Germany in connection with the school shooting in Winnenden, southern Germany.

“The thoughts of the Estonian people are with you. Please convey my sincere sympathy to the families and friends of the victims.”

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229