

President Ilves will depart to the Republic of Italy on an official visit

Monday, 13 July 2009 17:56

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves will depart today to the Republic of Italy on an official visit.
President Toomas Hendrik Ilves will depart today to the Republic of Italy on an official visit.

In the course of the visit the President of the Republic will meet with Italian President Giorgio Napolitano; Gianfranco Fini, the President of the Italian Chamber of Deputies; Franco Frattini, the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs; and Dr. Jacques Diouf, Director-General Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO). President Ilves and the Italian President will give a joint press conference.

The Estonian Head of State will return to Estonia on July 15th.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229