

President accepts credentials from four ambassadors

Wednesday, 27 October 2010 23:00

The President, Mr. Toomas Hendrik Ilves, met in Kadriorg today with the Ambassadors of the Netherlands, Poland, Russia and Kuwait, who presented their credentials to the Head of State.

Credentials were presented by the Ambassador of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Mr. Maurits Robbert Jochems, the Ambassador of the Republic of Poland, Mr. Grzegorz Marek Poznański, and the Ambassador of the Russian Federation, Mr. Juri Merzljakov, who all reside in Tallinn, as well as the Ambassador of Kuwait Mr. Musaed al-Haroun, who resides in Berlin.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229