

President of the Republic receives credentials from three ambassadors

Wednesday, 15 December 2010 17:00

The President, Mr. Toomas Hendrik Ilves, met today with the ambassadors of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania, the Republic of Peru, and the Republic of India, who handed over their credentials to the Head of State.

Credentials were presented by Mr. Sidi Mohamed Ould Taleb Amar, the Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania, who resides in Moscow, and Mr. Pablo Rodriguez, the Ambassador of the Republic of Peru, and Mr. Aladiyan Manickam, the Ambassador of the Republic of India, who both reside in Helsinki.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229