

Today, in Kadriorg, President Ilves accepted credentials from the ambassadors of Germany, Romania, Brasilia and Ghana.

Credentials were presented to the Head of State by Christian Matthias Schlaga, Ambassador of the German Confederation, who resides in Tallinn; Marian Cătălin Avramescu, Ambassador of Romania, who resides in Helsinki; Paul King Aryene, Ambassador of the Republic of Ghana, who resides in Berlin and Vergniaud Elyseu Filho, Ambassador of the Federative Republic of Brazil, who is to reside in the Embassy to be opened in Tallinn, in what is also the first Brazilian embassy in the Baltic states.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone 631 6229