

The representatives of the Estonian Association of Bakeries took a large loaf of bread, baked from freshly-harvested crops, to the President Toomas Hendrik Ilves and Mrs. Evelin Ilves in Kadriorg to celebrate national bread week.

The tradition of bringing bread, baked from freshly-harvested crops, to the President's residence dates back to the period before World War II.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone 631 6229