

President Ilves will make a working visit to Lithuania

Tuesday, 15 November 2011 20:34

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves will fly to Vilnius tonight where he will meet tomorrow with the Lithuanian Head of State Dalia Grybauskaite and Prime Minister Andrius Kubilius.

The Estonian head of state's meetings will focus on joint infrastructure projects and energy policies of the Baltic countries and the European Union, as well as topics related to Europe's economy and security.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229