

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves today handed over Orders of the Cross of Terra Mariana to Vice President of the European Commission, Olli Ilmari Rehn, and high official of the European Commission, Timo Pesonen, for their contribution to Estonia's merger with the euro area.

President Ilves adopted the decision to award the decorations in February 2011.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229