

President Ilves accepted the credentials of two ambassadors

Wednesday, 23 May 2012 08:17

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves accepted the credentials of the ambassadors of the Republic of Namibia and the Republic of Armenia in Kadriorg today.

The head of state accepted the credentials of Daniel Rudolph Smith, Ambassador of the Republic of Namibia, who resides in Stockholm; and Ara Aivazian, Ambassador of the Republic of Armenia, who resides in Vilnius.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229