

Today, President Toomas Hendrik Ilves cast his vote online at the local elections, choosing from the candidates running for office in his home municipality of Abja.

At a meeting in Kadriorg, he also demonstrated to the French IT minister Fleur Pellerin how to vote online with an ID-card and introduced the data exchange layer X-road, which was created and is used in Estonia; cyber security was also discussed.

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229