

President Toomas Hendrik Ilves on the violent confrontation in Kyiv:

"Both sides in the centre of Kyiv must stop. Any step forward is a step towards new violence and new victims. Those in Ukraine who care about the lives of their fellow citizens and the future of their country must find a solution to this crisis without armoured vehicles, weapons and petrol bombs."

Office of the President
Public Relations Department
Phone +372 631 6229