

Evelin Ilves visited an elementary school in Paris

Thursday, 11 April 2013 14:54

Evelin Ilves today visited the École élémentaire Miollis elementary school in the 15th District of Paris. A separate kindergarten, Ecole maternelle Miollis, is located at the school, in a different building, and both establishments share a cafeteria.

Evelin Ilves visited classrooms of the elementary school, looked at the lunchroom and talked to both students and cooks.

The Deputy Mayor of the 15th District of Paris, Claire de Clermont-Tonnerre, with officials from the 15th Municipality responsible for the good organisation of school cafeterias, also attended: adviser for the organisation and administration of schools, Catherine Bruno; Deputy Mayor for School Education, Jacqueline Malherbe; Adviser to the Mayor for School Issues, M. Rochefort; and also Lucie Lechat, who is a project manager for the local healthy eating programme, Paris Santé Nutrition.
