

The President's Roundtable on Local Government and Regional Development is comprised of representatives from local government associations and umbrella organizations. The goal of the Roundtable is to develop recommendations for the head of state in matters pertaining to regional development.